

PAT CASH

BIOGRAPHY

- Pat Cash was born in Australia and first came to the world's attention winning both the Wimbledon and US Open Junior titles.
- Known for his trademark black and white checked headband and cross earring.
- One of only four men to win both the Junior and Senior Wimbledon titles.
- Cash was involved in 'Super Saturday', widely regarded as the greatest day in US Open history, losing to Ivan Lendl in a 5 set thriller.
- Changed convention by climbing into the stand and up to the player's box to celebrate his Wimbledon title, setting the trend for future champions.
